Rate of Interest on Small Saving Schemes

2325. SHRI SATISH PRADHAN : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are considering to reduce rates on small savings schemes including national savings certificates, post office schemes and RBI bonds as well as eliminating the various tax exemptions that these schemes currently enjoy;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government are also considering to stop transferable certificate like Kisan Vikas Patra as it had become storehouses for large chunks of unaccounted black money;

(d) if so, the details thereof; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL): (a) and (b) No proposal of either revision of interest rates or reduction of tax benefits on various small savings schemes and Relief bonds of the Reserve Bank of India is under the consideration of Government, at present. However Reddy Committee's recommendations on interest rates and tax treatment of small savings schemes will provide an input to Government's approach on the subject.

(c) to (e) No proposal of discontinuance of Kisan Vikas Patra Scheme is under the consideration of Government, at present.

Special International Investment Fund

† 2326. SHRI KHAN GHUFRAN ZAHIDI: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

† Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(a) whether a proposal has been mooted by Government to set-up a Special International Investment Fund for the development of economic activities; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL): (a) There is no such proposal by the Government. However, while participating in the recent meeting of the International Monetary and Financial Committee of the Board of Governors of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) held in November 2001, Finance Minister proposed creating of a special International Investment Fund which could open a concessional credit line to countries enabling them to undertake infrastructural development and other economic activities. Finance Minister advised that the Fund should be dedicated to development projects and should come as an additive to grants meant for social sectors such as education, health, sanitation and drinking water.

(b) Does not arise.
